

Training/Developing Teachers, Administrators, & Coaches

Below is a partial list of trainings attended by Solanco Teachers/Administrators:

- “Promoting Opportunity Through Equity”
- “Understanding Implicit Bias”
- Teaching Tolerance Social Justice Standards Working Group – Session for Curriculum and Instruction Administrators.
- “Poverty & School Success: Challenges & Opportunities in Effectively Working with Under-Resourced Students” with Tammy Pawlowski
- “Educational Leaders Building Equity Through Cultural Proficiency” with Dr. Erick Witherspoon, National Director of Equity, Generation Ready, New York, NY. Session 1 or 3.
- Showcasing What’s Working in Our Schools in Better Serving Our Traditionally Under-Achieving Students
- “Educational Leaders Building Equity Through Cultural Proficiency” with Dr. Erick Witherspoon, National Director of Equity, Generation Ready, New York, NY. Session 2 of 3.
- Social Justice Standards Working Group – Standards Training for Curriculum and Instruction
- “Educational Leaders Building Equity Through Cultural Proficiency” with Dr. Erick Witherspoon, National Director of Equity, Generation Ready, New York, NY. Session 3 of 3.
- “Schools Where All Students Thrive: How Youth Participatory Action Research (YPAR) Fosters Educational Equity and Improves School Climate and Learning” with Dr. Bill Preble, New England College, Manchester, NH.
- “I See You and You Matter: Culturally Responsive Practices for Educators” with Shauna King, King Professional Development Services, Bowie, MD.
- Schools Where All Students Thrive: How Youth Participatory Action Research (YPAR) Fosters Educational Equity and Improves School Climate and Learning.
- “Student Resilience Realized: Building Extraordinary Brains” with Frank J. Kros, Kros Learning Group, Baltimore, MD.

PIAA Coaches

- All Solanco coaches are required to obtain a Certificate of Completion for the following course: “Coaching Principles” awarded by Human Kinetics Coach Education. This course includes a module titled "Coaching Diverse Athletes."